All employees are expected to engage in supervisory processes and to be accountable for all aspects of their work at Zig Zag.

PROBATION PERIOD

The probationary period for this position is three months from the commencement of employment. Exact times and dates will be negotiated with the CEO.

SEXUAL ASSAULT TEAM OBJECTIVE

The Sexual Assault Counselling and Support Worker Brisbane North / Camp Hill (Locum) position will work collaboratively and supportively within the Zig Zag Sexual Assault Program team in the effective delivery of information and support on issues relating to sexual assault, and in the provision of high-quality therapeutic support services to young women survivors of sexual violence. The Sexual Assault Program team achieves this through the provision of individual counselling and support, support groups, community education on the nature and dynamics of sexual assault, and the development of professional training resources on issues relating to responding appropriately to young women survivors.

POSITION OBJECTIVE

The primary objective of the Sexual Assault Counselling and Support Worker Brisbane North / Camp Hill (Locum) position is to work collaboratively to deliver high-quality, ethical, responsive, specialist sexual assault counselling and support services to young women survivors of sexual violence who are residing in the Brisbane North region and Wider Brisbane region. This position will ensure flexible service delivery at the Zillmere and Camp Hill service sites and will include intensive support and sustained engagement; assertive follow up and referral; and outreach assistance through some mobile outreach services.

This position also has responsibility for the development and facilitation of therapeutic sexual assault support groups, community education, and early intervention and prevention activities to address issues relating to sexual violence within the Brisbane North region in collaboration with BRISSC.

All employees are required to work within the bounds set by the Zig Zag mission statement, philosophy and practice framework. All employees are required to implement and adhere to the guidance provided by Zig Zag policy and procedures. This involves a commitment to:

- Utilising feminist and social justice principles in practice;
- Working within a self-management framework;
- Actively contributing to teamwork and team care;
- Utilising collaborative decision making processes, which requires a high degree of participation, communication, and personal responsibility; and
- Utilising consultative and transparent processes.

PRIMARY DUTIES:

1. Information, Support & Referral

- Provide appropriate and timely information, support and referral to young people who have experienced sexual violence; including information that will assist them to access and navigate medical, forensic, police and criminal justice systems, and other support services.
- Provide appropriate and timely information, support and referral, where safe and appropriate, to young people's primary supporters (e.g. parents, family members, carers, partners, etc.).
- Provide appropriate information to other professionals in responding to the needs of young people who are survivors of sexual violence, including advice on established interagency protocols and pathways for reporting sexual offences and accessing further medical, forensic, and legal systems.

2. Counselling/Group Work

- Provide individual counselling and support with young women who have experienced sexual violence, using a flexible and responsive approach that may integrate therapeutic counselling, individual advocacy, case management, and the provision of information and referrals.
- Where resources allow, and in conjunction with the Sexual Assault Program team, develop and provide outreach strategies that maximise young women's access to sexual assault services.
- Work collaboratively in the development and delivery of quality therapeutic support groups for young women survivors of sexual violence, including the monitoring of trends arising from individual counselling and support that can inform group planning and development.
- Implement evaluation processes for all therapeutic counselling and group work undertaken, and to monitor soft outcomes and client feedback in the development of future service delivery.
- Ensure appropriate documentation and record keeping for all therapeutic counselling and group work.
- Design and develop innovative, user-friendly information resources for young women.

3. Community Education

- Provide information/awareness raising sessions about Zig Zag services and the development of interagency responses and referral pathways to assist young women.
- Work collaboratively in the development and delivery of community education workshops and events to raise community awareness of the incidence, nature, dynamics, and impacts of sexual violence; and to support the development of community responses to address and prevent sexual violence.

- Work collaboratively in the development and delivery of training workshops for professionals on responding appropriately to young women who may have experienced sexual violence.
- Contribute to the development of innovative, user-friendly resources about young women and sexual violence as negotiated within the Sexual Assault Program team.

4. Organisational, Team and Brisbane North Sexual Violence Response Group Participation.

Zig Zag is a feminist organisation that uses collaborative decision-making processes. Many operational and service delivery-related decisions related to this position are made within the Zig Zag Sexual Assault Program Team and / or the Brisbane North Sexual Violence Response Group.
